1. Preamble
(1) The Batchelor Institute of Indigenous Tertiary Education Council has made the Student Code of Conduct to describe the responsibilities and rights, and associated expected basic level of conduct, of all Batchelor Institute students, so that the Institute is a safe, healthy and harmonious academic and work environment, free from harassment for all members of the Institute community.

(2) By being admitted as a student of the Institute, each student is bound by the Institute’s regulations and other lawful directions, including this Code of Conduct.

(3) A person who has lodged an application for enrolment undertakes to be bound by, and comply with, the Institute’s regulations and other lawful directions as if he or she were already admitted as a student, until the application has been finalised.

(4) Unless the Act or an Institute regulation provides another process appropriate to the specific instance, any report of a breach of this Code brought against a student will be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

(5) This Code applies to all Institute students while they are:
   (a) on an Institute campus or facility; or
   (b) involved in an Institute activity or under the auspices of the Institute; or
   (c) undertaking travel to and from the Institute, paid for by the Institute; or
   (d) within accommodation paid for by the Institute; or
   (e) in the course of any field trip, workshop or practicum organised by or for the Institute.

(6) Regardless of what is in this Code, all students and the Institute retain the right and responsibility to refer alleged breaches of the Student Code of Conduct to authorities external to the Institute at any stage.

2. Definitions and Interpretations

Unless otherwise specified, for the purposes of this Code:

“academic misconduct” means conduct associated with assignments, essays, tests and other forms of assessment, conduct associated with examinations or conduct associated with thesis and other work presented as part of postgraduate courses, and includes:
   (a) cheating in a test, examination or other form of assessment;
   (b) presenting another person's work for assessment as if it were one's own, or other forms of plagiarism;
   (c) fabrication or falsification of data or research results; and
   (d) falsification of an academic record.

“Council” means the Council of the Institute constituted under Division 1 of Part 3 of the Batchelor Institute of Indigenous Tertiary Education Act (the Act);

“enrolment” means the process through which a student is allocated a place in one or more education or training programs for a specified period;

“Indigenous Australian people” refers to the original inhabitants of the Australian continent and nearby islands and their descendants. These people identify as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islanders.

“Institute” means the Batchelor Institute of Indigenous Tertiary Education established under Part 1 Section 4 of the Act;
“Institute activity” means any activity in which students participate under the Institute’s name regardless of whether or not the activity takes place on an Institute campus or facility;

“Institute facility” includes any real or personal property owned, leased or which are otherwise, at the time, within the Institute’s care and control;

“Institute regulations” includes any and all of the by-laws made under section 49 of the Act or rules made under section 51 of the Act or codes of conduct made under section 52 of the Act;

“staff” means the Director, academic or other salaried staff of the Institute or any other personnel employed by the Institute;

“student” means a person enrolled as a student of the Institute;

“teaching-learning activity” means any lecture, workshop, tutorial, seminar, demonstration, class or similar activity, whether or not it is one that students are required to attend, and any musical, dramatic or other artistic performance or production associated with their studies.

3. Student Conduct

(1) Students are expected to:
   (a) show a commitment to the Institute’s vision and goals;
   (b) make themselves aware of all Institute regulations and policies pertaining to their rights and responsibilities as students;
   (c) observe all regulations and lawful directions concerning their conduct that are made and published from time to time by the Institute; and
   (d) show respect to Indigenous protocols applicable where the Institute activity is conducted.

(2) Students are expected to act at all times in a way that:
   (a) respects the rights, privileges and well-being of others;
   (b) does not impair the functioning of the Institute;
   (c) does not impinge on the reasonable freedom of other persons to pursue their studies, researches, duties or lawful activities in the Institute or Institute facilities, or to participate in the life of the Institute; and
   (d) is not detrimental, or likely to be detrimental, to the reputation or to the orderly functioning of the Institute or its activities.

(3) Students have a responsibility to participate, as far as is possible within student’ individual circumstances, in the functioning of the Institute, including through the provision of constructive feedback on the teaching-learning environment.

(4) In the area of their learning at the Institute, students are expected to:
   (a) take responsibility for monitoring their own progress in the teaching-learning environment and the academic program, taking into account their level of access to academic staff and various support services provided by the Institute;
(b) make themselves aware of all unit or subject information available to them;
(c) attend teaching-learning activities as required and participate actively and positively in the teaching-learning environment;
(d) comply with workload expectations and submit required work in accordance with protocols and procedures agreed with the appropriate lecturer;
(e) make themselves aware of their individual rights and responsibilities regarding the proper use of copyright material;
(f) refrain from any form of academic misconduct; and
(g) raise any questions or concerns with the appropriate staff member in a timely manner.

(5) Students must not wilfully damage, misuse or use without authority the Institute’s property or any other property lawfully connected to the Institute.

4. Breaches of the Student Code of Conduct

(1) A breach of the Student Code of Conduct means conduct on the part of a student which:
   (a) unreasonably impinges on or impairs the reasonable freedom of other persons to pursue their studies, researches, duties or lawful activities or Institute facilities, or to participate in the life of the Institute;
   (b) unreasonably interferes with the due processes of the Institute;
