BATCHELOR INSTITUTE OF INDIGENOUS TERTIARY EDUCATION (CODES OF CONDUCT) BY-LAWS

By-laws under the Batchelor Institute of Indigenous Tertiary Education Act

1 Citation

These By-laws may be cited as the Batchelor Institute of Indigenous Tertiary Education (Codes of Conduct) By-laws.

2 Council may make codes of conduct

- (1) The Council may, by resolution at a meeting, make codes of conduct in relation to the activities and conduct of:
 - (a) members of the Council;
 - (b) staff of the Institute; and
 - (c) students of the Institute.
- (2) The Director must sign a code of conduct before it is published.

3 Code may operate at all or some campuses

A code of conduct or a provision of a code of conduct may be expressed to have operation in respect of:

- (a) all campuses and areas of the Institute; or
- (b) only some of the campuses or areas of the Institute.

4 Publication of codes

A code of conduct is published by:

- (a) posting in electronic form on the electronic Bulletin Board of the Institute a notice of the making of the code; and
- (b) posting copies of the code on sufficient official notice boards that the code is reasonably accessible to persons affected by the provisions of the code.

5 Persons not bound until code published

- (1) A notice of the making of a code of conduct is to specify the place or places from where a copy of the code may be obtained by a person who is affected by the provisions of the code.
- (2) A code of conduct does not bind the persons who are affected by the provisions of the code until the code is published in accordance with these By-laws.

6 Council may suspend operation of code

- (1) The Council may suspend the operation of a code of conduct or a provision of the code of conduct by publishing a notice of the suspension in the same manner as provided for the publishing of a code.
- (2) The suspension of operation of a code or a provision of a code may be expressed to be limited to a specified campus or area or specified campuses or areas of the Institute.

7 Content of code of conduct

A code of conduct may make provision in relation to:

- (a) requirements of the Institute in respect of the conduct of members, staff and students;
- (b) obligations of members, staff and students in their relationships to each other and to the Institute; and
- (c) the meaning of misconduct and breach of discipline.
