Certificate IV in Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Primary Health Care

All information correct as of Jan 2021

ABOUT THE COURSE

This qualification reflects the role of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people working to provide a range of support roles to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities, including specific health promotion programs, advice and assistance with self-management of chronic illness

These workers can be expected to flexibly assume a variety of job roles and undertake a broad range of tasks either individually or as a member of a multidisciplinary team.

JOB ROLES

Job roles of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Workers vary greatly from the roles and responsibilities of other health care professionals in that there is a blurring between the professional and private. Strong links with the community and environment means that often Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Workers may also find themselves utilising specific skills and knowledge as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people.

This may include acting as communicators and interpreters on behalf of clients and other health care professionals, providing cultural education to people outside of the community and culture, and providing health education and treatment in terms of tradition healing. It is important for employers to acknowledge these additional roles, which can fall outside the realm of strict primary health care.

Job roles of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Workers vary greatly from the Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Workers may perform their work roles in a range of settings:

- Health clinics, services and hospitals.
- Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisations (ACCHOs).
- Rural and remote locations, either through these services, or as visiting services.

General information

BACHELOR INSTITUTE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Literacy and Numeracy

When you enrol in a course at Batchelor Institute, you should be able to speak, read and write in English at the level required for the course you are undertaking. If you need help to improve your literacy and numeracy skills, there are specific courses and other assistance available.

Minimum age for students

Students must meet the minimum age requirement to be able to enrol with Batchelor Institute. The minimum age will depend on several factors.

Where:

- ▶ Training is delivered in a regional or remote community, and the student no longer engages and/or participates in secondary schooling, the student must be 15 years or older at the time training commences
- ▶ Training is delivered on the Batchelor Campus or Desert People Centre Campus, and where the student attends training during the day, but are not accommodated overnight, the student must be 17 years or older at the time training commences; or
- ▶ Training is delivered in any location, and the student requires to be travelled by Batchelor Institute to a training delivery location, the student must be 18 years or older at the time training commences.

ABSTUDY

You will need to apply to ABSTUDY once you have enrolled at Batchelor Institute so your travel can be arranged (if travel is applicable). To do this you will need to obtain a VET Enrolment and Fees Invoice from the Institute and then take it to your nearest Centrelink Office, to complete an ABSTUDY application.

STUDENT TRAVEL

If you have to live away from home while you are attending a workshop, your travel, accommodation and meals will be organised and paid for, by Batchelor Institute, if you are in receipt of ABSTUDY and are enrolled in a course subsidised by the NT Government.

RECOGNISING YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Batchelor Institute recognises the importance of skills and knowledge that you may already have. You may have gained these through other work or study you have done or through life experience.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a process that tries to match these skills and knowledge to the outcomes of your course to assess whether you have achieved the required learning outcomes. If you think you are eligible for RPL, contact us for more information.

Batchelor Institute also recognises qualifications and statements of attainments gained from any other Australian Registered Training Organisation, where nationally accredited training has been undertaken. This form of recognition may include Credit Transfers.

EDUCATIONAL AND STUDENT SUPPORT

Students who have been identified as needing extra support services besides those already identified will have the extra support identified within their individual training plan and the support services will be arranged accordingly.
